Free check-ups, screening mark Health Day

DECCAN HERALD

Tuesday, 7 April 2015

Various events and awareness campaigns marked "World Health Day" that was observed on Tuesday across the City.

St Martha's Hospital did its bit by offering free health consultation on education and food safety to 120 children of the NGO, Don Bosco Mane. A team of four doctors from the hospital and 20 nurses from the nursing...

» View on web